POPE JOHN HIGH SCHOOL
EVERETT, MASS.

ACCREDITATION

Pope John XXIII Central High School, Everett, became fully accredited for ten years by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, the nation's oldest regional accrediting association, during 1975. Formal presentation of the accreditation certificate was made to Sister M. Ursula, Principal, by T. Holmes, Moore, President of the New England Association and President of the New Hampton School in New Hampshire, at the 90th Annual Meeting held at the Copley Plaza Hotel.

The New England Association is the only one of the six regional accrediting associations to have all four of its constituent commissions on the list of national agencies recognized by the United States Commissioner of Education.

One of the distinctive features of American education is that the development and maintenance of educational standards are the responsibilities of nongovernmental voluntary accrediting associations. The New England Association serves that function.

Accreditation by the New England Association followed a year of careful in-depth self-study by the school staff led by Sister Carolyn Walsh, Chairman of the Steering Committee. The self-evaluation report covering all aspects of the school was prepared prior to the visit of a team of educators appointed by the New England Association whose job it was to take a close and unbiased look at the institution. A school which earns accreditation can assure local citizens that it has submitted all its programs, procedures and facilities to the scrutiny of outside professional educators, and its offerings have been deemed worthwhile. Said Principal, Sister M. Ursula, "The significance of the ten year accreditation is that Pope John XXIII High School has a qualified faculty, a varied and sound curriculum which fulfills college preparatory school requirements and an extra curricular program sufficient to provide for the academic, athletic and social needs of teenage boys and girls."

is that the development and maintenance of governmental voluntary accrediting associations. We have had a year of careful in-depth self-study by the Steering Committee. The self-evaluation was completed prior to the visit of a team of educators from the State of Ohio to take a close and unbiased look at the school. We are local citizens that it has submitted all its findings to the State Board of Education, and its offerings to the public. Sister M. ## In Appreciation

We, the graduating class of 1976, wish to express to the faculty of Pope John our deep and most sincere gratitude. Throughout our four year history here, you have helped us to grow and develop into the men and women that we are at this moment.

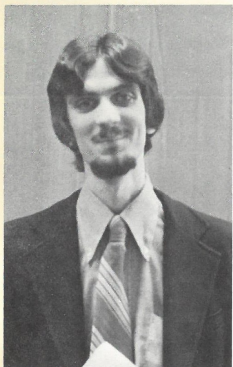

You have enabled us to create many happy memories by your laughing and sharing with us, but above all by your teaching us to learn from one another. You have shown your dedication and enthusiasm continually (even during those times when we, ourselves lacked it). We thank you for all you have given to us - especially for the times you felt frustrated and aggravated, yet still had the patience to keep on working with us.

We say goodbye to our faculty. Unforgettable are our memories; undeniable is the influence you had upon our lives. Thank you.

Every great man is unique . . ."

DONNA BERLANDI

"The foolish man seeks happiness in the distance, the wise grows it under his feet."

MARYELLA BLUNDO

"Sometimes it is easier to see clearly into a liar than into a man who tells the truth. Truth like light blinds. Falsehood, on the contrary, is a beautiful twilight that enhances every object."

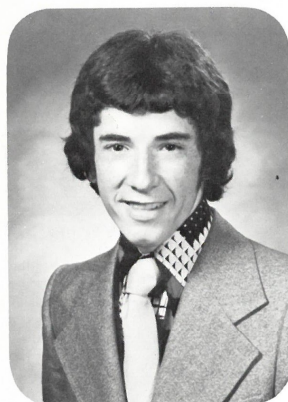

BARBARA BOWEN
"Barb"

"And in between what might have been and what has come to pass a misbegotten guess alas, and bits of broken glass."

CAROL BOYLE

"The only limit to realization of tomorrow will be our doubts of today. Let us move forward with strong and active faith."

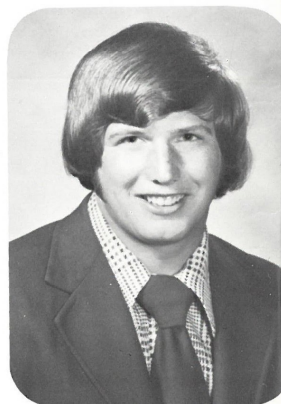

MICHAEL BERNARD

"Liberty of the individual is to think his own thoughts."

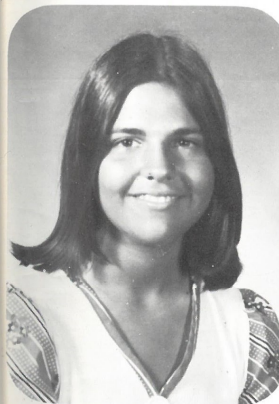

ANN-MARIE BERRIGAN

"Those schoolgirl days of telling tales and biting nails must end. But in my mind I know that they will still live on and on."

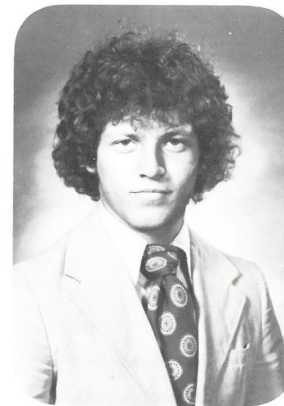

RICHARD BIAGOTTI

"Taking the time to love is, most of all, caring enough to not hold on too tightly, and yet not breaking all the ties."

PATRICIA TOOMEY

"To be unique is to live:
To conform is to survive.
The will to live is ever present in Tricia."

KIRK THERRIEN

"The great Pleasure in life is doing what people say you cannot do."

THOMAS TRICKETT
"Tom"

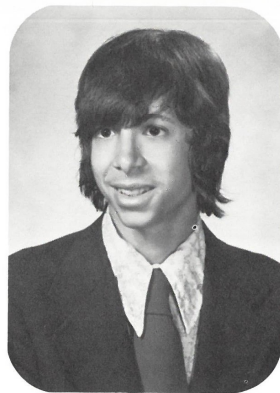

"Yesterday is no longer important for it is in the past. Tomorrow can wait because it is in the future. But today is utmost for Today is now."

SUSAN TRODDEN

"Don't tell me not to fly - I've simply got to - If someone takes a spill it's me and not you."

ANTHONY TRODELLA

"They are able because they think they are able."

RONALD VALENTINE

JEAN VETRANO

"For every star that falls to earth, a new one glows. For every dream that fades away a new one grows. When things are not what they seem you must keep following your dreams."

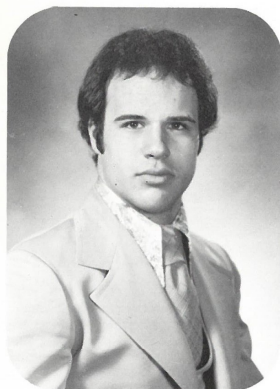

DEBRA VOKE
"Debbie"

"The longer I live, the more I'm convinced that success doesn't come from lying awake nights, but from keeping awake in the days."

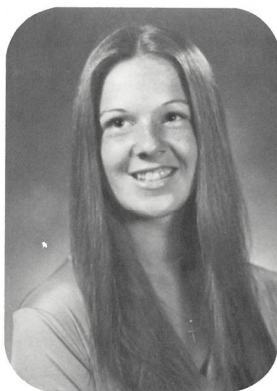

MARY WEEDER
"Mare"

"I don't know any love songs and I can't sing the blues anymore - But I can sing this song and you can sing my song when I'm gone."

ALFRED G. VAUTOUR
"Al"

"A man can only be judged by the morals he holds closest to himself."

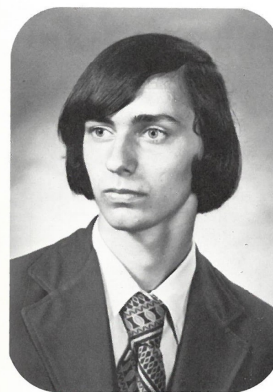

JOAN VEITCH

"To be curious is to be alive: To sense the wonder in things, great and small . . ."

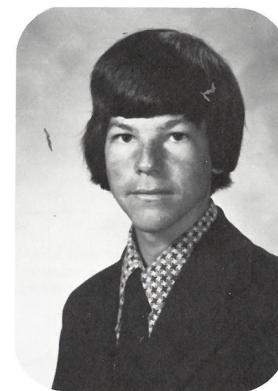

ANN VENEZIA

"All things must change, to something new, something strange."

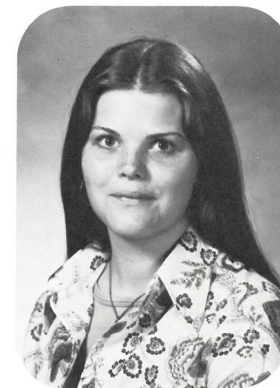

KENNETH WELCH
"Grape"

"Listen to the tide slowly turning, Wash all your heartaches away, We're part of the fire that is burning, And from the ashes we can build another day."

JAMES WEYMOUTH
"Jim"

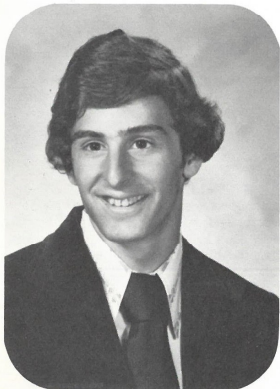

"Life is a dream, but don't wake me."

NANCY WHARTON
"Nan"

"Love is a symbol of eternity. It wipes out all sense of time, destroying all memories of a beginning, and all fear of an end."

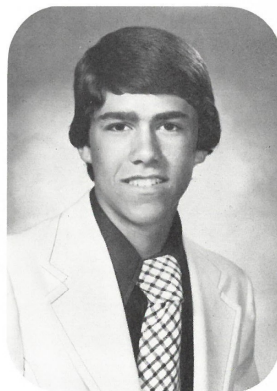

WILLIAM J. WHOLLEY
"Blairs"

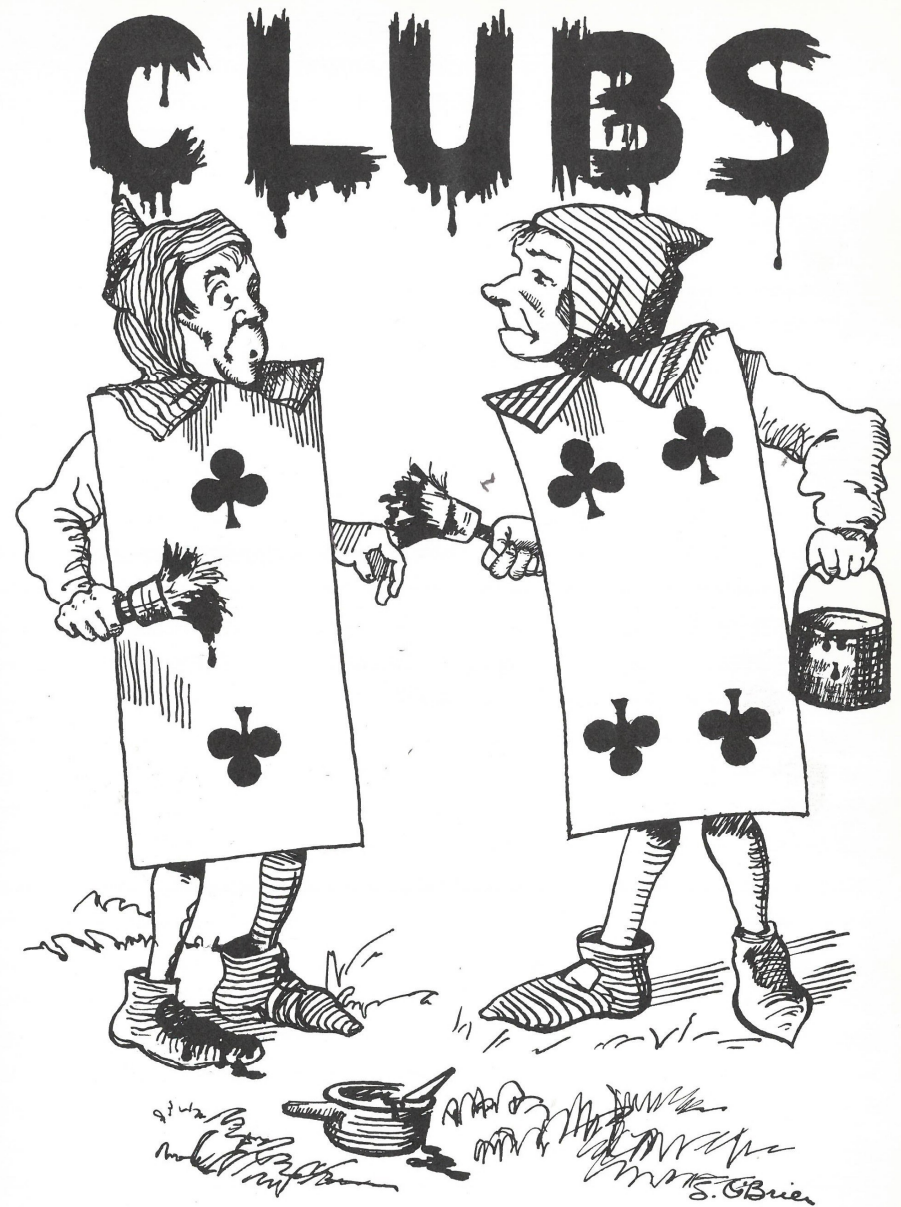

COLLEEN WILKERSON

"My friends will live in me, in my memories and in my feelings. I must keep these feelings alive because if I don't, then something beautiful will truly have vanished from the earth."

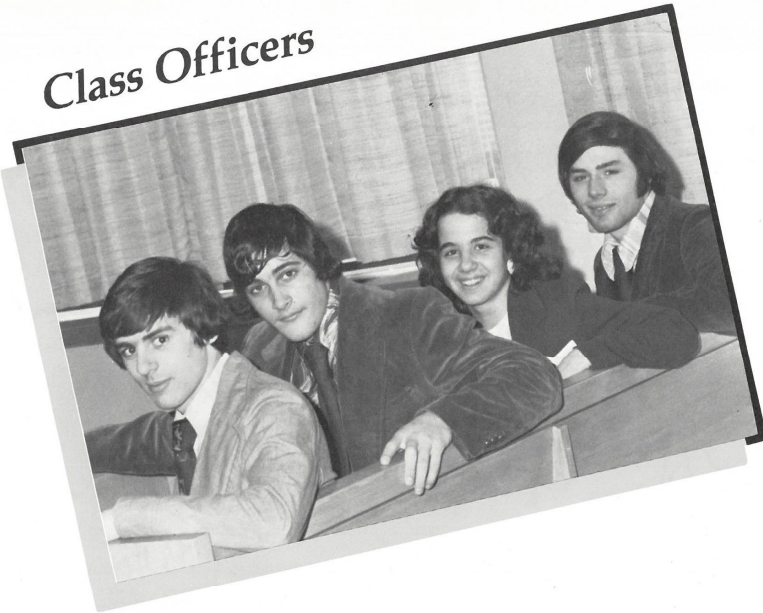

RICHARD F. ZANNINO
"Rich"

"It matters not how long we live, but how."

CHEERLEADERS

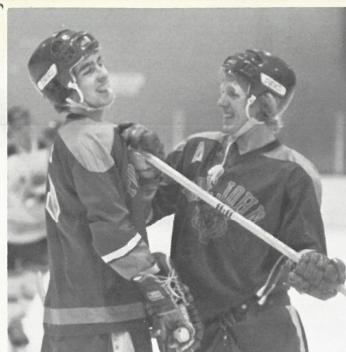

Reflecting back on our two years as Pope John cheerleaders we have realized that there is more to cheerleading than the pride and glory of wearing a uniform. We can all remember:

- ... Gumby's famous flip, Russian jump, roundoff, and straddle . . .
- ... the "fun times" at J.V. football games in Glenale park . . .
- ... Terri at practice?
- ... the night football game against Bedford when our entire mount collapsed . . .
- ... "won pack" . . .
- ... "a-a-coo" . . .
- ... the disappointment of losing the J.V. Championship by one point to Monsignor Ryan . . .
- ... the smiles of "blondie and red" of Matignon . . .
- ... our pretty flowers . . .
- ... the spirit the seniors showed at the Malden Catholic rally . . .
- ... Pinky's stitches . . .
- ... POPE JOHN TIGER TERRITORY
- ... Maria's attraction toward Coach Santa . . .
- ... the "HONORABLE MENTION" at St. Mary's of Cambridge Competition . . .
- ... Gina's straight arms . . .
- ... being Varsity Catholic High School Champs at B.C. in 1976 . . .
- ... Vaseline smiles . . .
- ... Joan's and Ann-Marie's normal elbows . . .
- ... qualifying for the New England Cheering Tournament . . .
- ... ribbons and hairspray . . .
- ... we're not superstitious but - I'll buy the donuts . . .
- ... the day Dianne learned how to clap her hands and stamp her feet at the same time . . .
- ... "Thank you Mrs. Carroll dear" - for all your help . . .

Hockey

Pope John XXIII grabbed the brass ring the first time around Causeway Street. A year ago they were extinguished at Billerica Forum by Masconomet; they had shrugged, stuffed the uniforms in their bags, and climbed on the bus.

This time, they came prepared. There was a song. "It's Boston Garden Time", to the tune of "Howdy Doody" was designed especially for the occasion. A group of forwards who weren't awed by the bright lights and the vertical atmosphere were given the chance, with three minutes to play, and Hull trailing by five goals, to chant, along with all the fans. "It's all over."

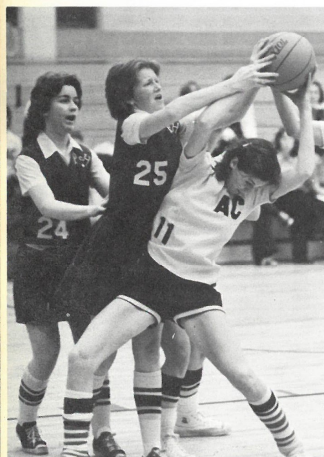

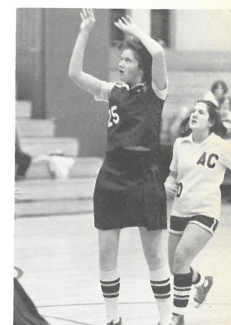

Billerica, the state champion and heavy favorite, was next - but that was Saturday. It was still "Boston Garden Time" in Everett.

GRADUATION

"A tale begun in other days,
When summer suns were glowing -
A simple chime, that served to time
The rhythm of our growing -
Whose echoes live in memory yet,
Though envious years would say 'forget' "

"Thus grew the tale of Looking -
Glass Land:
Thus slowly, one by one,
Its quaint events have been hammered out -
And now the tale is done,
And forward we steer, a merry crew
Beneath the setting sun."
